

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

LYNN FAWKES and JOHN FAWKES,

Plaintiffs,

v.

TARGET STORES,

Defendant.

Case No.: C 08-02034 JW (PVT)

ORDER RE STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

On June 11, 2008, defendant Target Stores filed a proposed stipulated protective order governing the parties' respective disclosures of certain confidential material in the above-captioned action. Having reviewed the proposed stipulated protective order, the court finds the following deficiencies:

- (1) the stipulated protective order fails to reference that confidential material must qualify for protection under the standards developed under Rule 26(c);
- (2) the "Confidentiality Agreement" referenced in paragraph 5 has not been included in the proposed stipulated protective order filed with the court; and
- (3) a blanket protective order is not the proper vehicle for avoiding in advance any waiver of privilege from inadvertent production of privileged documents as specified in paragraph 12; and

- (4) the signature block for the judge's signature shall be included on the last page of the proposed stipulated protective order (following the signature blocks of the attorneys).

Additionally, the parties are advised to review the model stipulated protective order on the court's website located at www.cand.uscourts.gov.

IT IS SO ORDERED.<sup>1</sup>

Dated: June 24, 2008

PATRICIA V. TRUMBULL
